Location

St. Mary's Court is a small and exclusive over 55's development located in the peaceful village of Crostwick, on the outskirts of Spixworth and just north of Norwich. The development offers a quiet and community focused setting, ideal for those seeking a more relaxed pace of life whilst still remaining conveniently connected to nearby amenities. Residents benefit from easy access to the neighbouring village of Spixworth, which offers everyday conveniences including East of England Co-op Food Store, dentist, doctors, hairdressers and other convenience shops. St. Mary's Court benefits from convenient bus links nearby, with regular services from Crostwick Lane and Spixworth providing easy access into Norwich City Centre.

Outside

Outside, the bungalow benefits from one allocated parking space directly to the front of the bungalow with additional visitors parking nearby. The rear garden proves fully enclosed and well maintained, consisting of a patio area, well maintained lawn and colourful flower beds.
