Full Description

VIEWINGS – SATURDAY 19TH SEPTEMBER, 10:30 AM–12:00 PM

If you would like to view the property, we are arranging appointments on Saturday 19th September between 10:30 am and 12:00 pm. Please email us to book a viewing.

Please note: The photographs were taken in 2022. The property is currently tenanted and will contain the tenants' furniture during viewings.

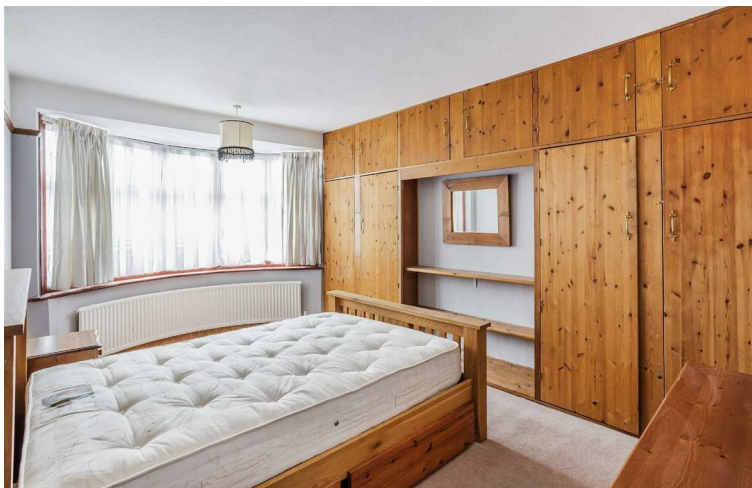

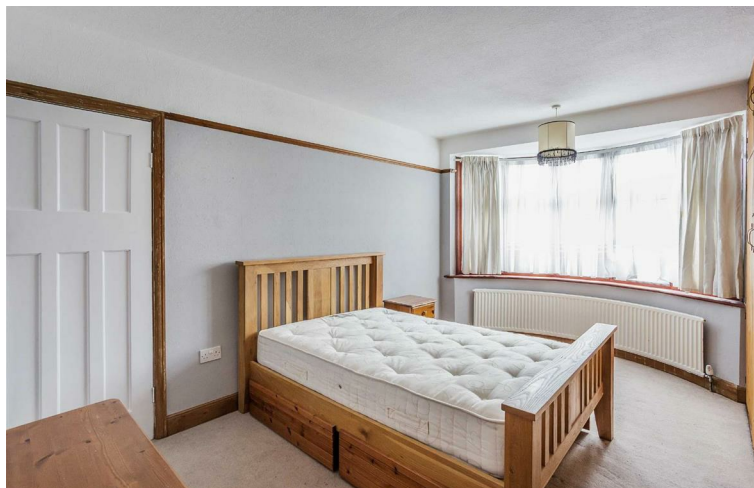

Set within a delightful cul-de-sac is this spacious four-bedroom Blay-built family home, offering excellent accommodation arranged over three floors.

The property comprises two reception rooms, a fitted kitchen, shower room and family bathroom. While the property has been well maintained, it would now benefit from some updating and modernisation, providing an excellent opportunity for a purchaser to improve the property to their own taste and requirements.

Further benefits include gas central heating, double glazing, a pleasant rear garden and generous off-street parking for up to four cars.

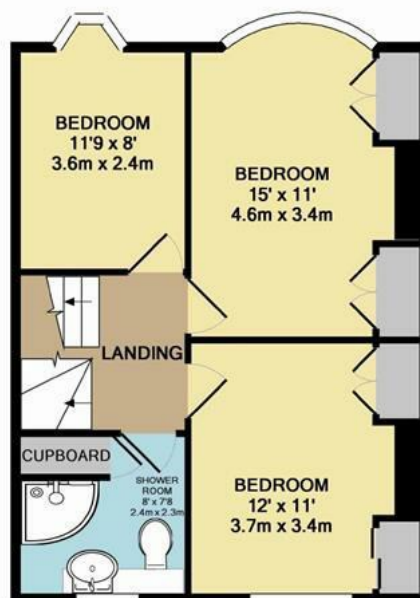

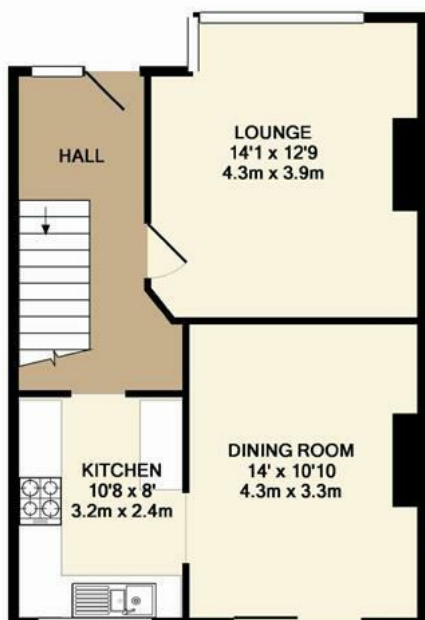

Raynes Park town centre and mainline station are within approximately a 15-minute walk, with a range of local bus routes nearby providing convenient access to the surrounding areas.

An excellent opportunity to purchase a substantial family home in a sought-after cul-de-sac location, with plenty of potential to update and personalise.
