Ashted mainline station provides services into Waterloo and Victoria approximately 40 minutes.

To the front of the property there is a charming lawn and ample driveway parking leading to a garage.

On entering the bungalow, an entrance hall leads to the spacious and bright living / dining room which overlooks the garden. There is a well proportioned kitchen which benefits from room for a breakfast table and leads to a lean-to. The bungalow also offers three bright double bedrooms, a family bathroom and a separate WC.

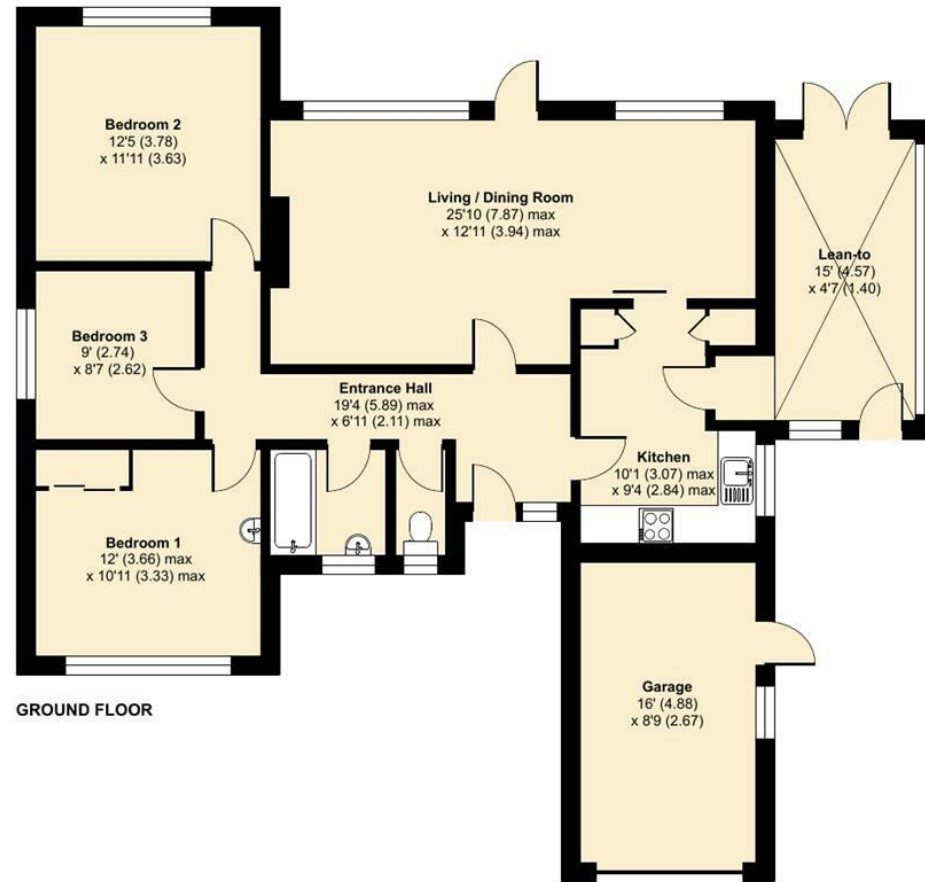

This well located home provides the opportunity for buyers to modernise to one's own taste. There is also excellent potential to extend (STPP).
